1. Think of the “Makeover” shows on TV. How do they bring about transformation?
2. God’s way of bringing about transformation, both in us and in others, is centered around two commands. What are they? See Matt 22:36-40.
3. In what ways are you trying to live out these two commands in your own context?
4. Read Mark 3:15 and see Jesus’ purpose for gathering the twelve together to follow him. What are these purposes?
5. How do you think the two great commands are part of Mark 3:15?
6. Read 1 John 3:16-18 and Matt 5:14-16. The Lord tells us to engage in actions that show love to our neighbors. When has somebody done this for you?
7. Read Rom 10:13-17. The Lord tells us to love our neighbor by sharing with words how they can know God as we know him. Who shared with you? Why did you listen?
8. Read 1 Pet 3:15. What would cause somebody to ask another person about “the hope that they have”? What might describe the life of a person who is often asked this question?
9. Read Mark 3:15 again. The ability to drive out demons is a sign of God’s kingdom breaking into somebody’s life. Have you had any experiences that it is so obvious that God has broken in? What did you do?
10. Of the actions: words, life, and signs noted above, which one do you feel most comfortable with? Which one do you need to grow in?
