

I. God has done everything necessary for all of us to communicate with Him Eph 2:14-15, 18

A. Jesus opened the door for all people to talk with God

B. The Father Himself eagerly desires to talk with us

C. The Spirit guides us into all communication with God

II. The world disrupts communication with God, but we have a connector Jude 17-20

A. It speaks out of self-centeredness

B. It brings division and separation from God and others

C. Prayer in the Spirit keeps us connected to God and others

III. The Spirit guides us into all communication with God Rom 8:26-28;
Gal 4:6;
Eph 6:18

A. He makes us want to talk with Him

B. He makes us presentable to talk with Him

C. He makes us understandable as we talk

D. He makes us able to hear and understand when God talks to us

¹⁸ For through him we both have access to the Father by one Spirit.